

September 6, 2016

Dr. Yag-Howard recognized by the AMA

Dermatologist Cyndi Yag-Howard, M.D., F.A.A.D., owner and operator of Yag-Howard Dermatology and Aesthetic Center in Naples, has been selected as an American Medical Association Women Physicians Section (WPS) Inspirational Physician. The program recognizes physicians who have contributed to the achievements of women in the medical profession.

To honor her contributions, Dr. Yag-Howard will be recognized during September Women in Medicine Month on the AMA-WPS website as well as in other AMA communication vehicles, and be highlighted in a special commemorative book.

Dr. Yag-Howard has been in business for 19 years. The Yag-Howard Dermatology and Aesthetic Center located at 1000 Goodlette-Frank Road in Naples offers a full range of aesthetic and medical treatments for men and women. She is a board-certified dermatologist and dermatologic surgeon specializing in facial aesthetics and skin-cancer surgery. She lectures nationally on surgical techniques for best aesthetic outcomes and techniques that combine art with medicine.

"I am truly honored to be recognized by the AMA-WPS as one of America's Inspirational Physicians," Yag-Howard said. "The recognition alone validates years of dedication to the medical profession."

Dr. Yag-Howard also was included in the "Distinctive Women of 2016 in Southwest Florida" by Distinctive Women, an international publication serving Canada and the U.S. The women were honored for the positive impact they are making in their respective communities, as well their commitment to succeed and change the world.

For more information, call Yag-Howard Dermatology and Aesthetic Center at (239) 529-3376. Online at yhderm.com.

(<http://www.businessobserverfl.com/press/detail/dr.-yag-howard-recognized-by-the-ama/>)